

JD.com Updates the Status under Holding Foreign Companies Accountable Act

BEIJING, May 05, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- JD.com, Inc. (the "Company" or "JD.com") (Nasdaq: JD; HKEx: 9618), a leading supply chain-based technology and service provider, today updates its status under the Holding Foreign Companies Accountable Act (the "HFCAA"). JD.com is aware that the Company has been identified by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") under the HFCAA as a Commission-Identified Issuer on May 4, 2022, New York time, following the Company's filing of the annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021.

JD.com understands that the SEC made such identification pursuant to the HFCAA and its implementation rules issued thereunder, and this indicates that the SEC determines that the Company used an auditor whose working paper cannot be inspected or investigated completely by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (the "PCAOB") to issue the audit opinion for its financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021.

In accordance with the HFCAA, a company will be delisted from a U.S. stock exchange only if the company has been identified by the SEC for three consecutive years due to PCAOB's inability to inspect auditor's working paper.

JD.com has been actively exploring possible solutions. The Company will continue to comply with applicable laws and regulations in both China and the United States, and strive to maintain its listing status on both Nasdaq and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.
